AMERICAN JEWISH YEAR BOOK 1982
The 1982 AMERICAN JEWISH YEAR BOOK, the eighty-second in the series, continues to offer a unique chronicle of developments in areas of concern to Jews around the world.

The present volume features Lucy Dawidowicz's comprehensive and magisterial "A Century of Jewish History, 1881-1981: The View from America." This essay is noteworthy for its binocular vision, examining American Jewry from the twin perspectives of Jewish history and American history.

The present volume features Lucy Dawidowicz’s comprehensive and magisterial “A Century of Jewish History, 1881–1981: The View from America.” This essay is noteworthy for its binocular vision, examining American Jewry from the twin perspectives of Jewish history and American history.

The review of developments in the United States includes Murray Friedman’s “Intergroup Relations”; George Gruen’s “The United States, Israel, and the Middle East”; Steven Cohen’s “The American Jewish Family Today”; and Joseph Edelman’s “Soviet Jews in the United States: An Update.” Alvin Chenkin and Maynard Miran provide revised U.S. Jewish population estimates.

Jewish life around the world is reported on in a series of articles dealing with Israel, Canada, Great Britain, France, Germany, the Soviet Union, Poland, Hungary, Rumania, and South Africa. New estimates for the world Jewish population are given.

Carefully compiled directories of national Jewish organizations, periodicals, and federations and welfare funds, as well as religious calendars and obituary notices, round out the 1982 AMERICAN JEWISH YEAR BOOK.

We are very grateful to our colleague Carol Sue Davidson for technical and editorial assistance. Thanks are also due to Cyma M. Horowitz, director of the Blaustein Library, Lotte Zajac, and all our other co-workers in the Information and Research Department.
